someone to play basketball using just chalkboard diagrams or would you get them on the court and have them play in basketball the answer is easy bad you do both so why teach politics only as a spectator sport senator bob graham believes that students should expand on their classroom learning about the political system he spurs them to hit the court and actually play the game if students work on an issue they care about politics will become a meaningful and positive experience this short how to guide takes students out of theoretical discussions of policy and into a world where they can affect change graham bad s goal is to have students identify a problem and then walk them through each step from researching the issue to getting others involved to engaging the media each chapter starts with a real case showing citizens tackling a step in the process and ends with a summary checklist and a series of questions that help students put graham bad s game plan in action by offering students concrete guidance an array of resources and advice for troubleshooting and overcoming barriers
