and creative eighty years of life he virtually lived an epic it is largely due to his mighty stature as a bengali poet that nobody really bothered about his english writings and his own translations of his own writings secondly it is owing to the supposedly poor quality of his translations subsequent to the translation of gitanjali it was only after tagore received the nobel prize for literature in 1913 that there was a growing demand for his writings in the west and as tagore was not apparently satisfied by the translations that others mainly his admirers made he began to translate his writings himself but the tremendous haste with which he had to translate possibly affected the quality of translations come what may the point is whether tagore s english translations are good or bad whether the translation furthered his reputation or damaged it is immaterial the fact of the matter is that they are his and his own translation of whatever quality it may be is more valuable to a tagore lover than the best translation made by somebody else as van gogh s one original single scratch is more valuable than the best possible copy by some other artist the value of tagore s english writings lies here they constitute an important part of his total oeuvre add a new magnificent dimension to it and offer us a glimpse into the mystique of the creative anxiety that could have haunted even the greatest writer of the twentieth century about his possible reception in an alien culture this book gathers high quality papers presented at the international conference on smart trends for information technology and computer communications smartcom 2020 organized by the global knowledge research foundation gr foundation from 23 to 24 january 2020 it covers the state of the art and emerging topics in information computer communications and effective strategies for their use in engineering and managerial applications it also explores and discusses the latest technological advances in and future directions for information and knowledge computing and its applications this book examines diverse literary writings in bangla related to crime in late nineteenth and early twentieth century colonial bengal with a timely focus on gender it analyses crime centred fiction and non fiction in the region to see how actual or imagined crimes related to women were shaped and fashioned into images and narratives for contemporary
